

Dr Gemma Garcia-Parés is a Consultant Psychiatrist, Head of the area of Hospitalization, Emergency, and Liaison Psychiatry at the Mental Health Service of the Corporación Sanitària Universitària Parc Tauli de Sabadell (Barcelona). She is also an Associated Professor at the Medical School of the Autonomous University of Barcelona (UAB).

She was member of the Board of the Catalan Psychiatric Association for 10 years, and she was its President from 2005 to 2009. She cofounded, together with Dr Judith Usall, the Group of Research in Women and Mental Health of that Society. She's also devoted to the promotion of education in Gender and Psychiatry and she has co-organized several Conferences and workshops on this topic.

She promotes and participates in different projects of Research in gender and Psychiatry in the Department of Psychiatry where she works and directs several thesis.

She is the President of the Clinical Guidelines Committee and a member of the Professional Counsel of her Hospital.

In November 2009 she received The College of Medicine of Barcelona Award for Professional Excellence.